Subject: Public Integrity

Dear Mr. Tibbles,

I met with the Governor this morning about VECO and related matters. At the end of the discussion we were in agreement that legislation should be offered to create a Public Integrity Unit in the Dept. of Law. In theory two attys. and support staff to assist APOC and be able to pursue integrity issues wherever they might occur. You would be best able to direct our actions to achieve that goal: namely, how do we get it into the OMB budget process and proposed legislation. Perhaps you can coordinate a meeting with Rehfeld, yourself, me (possibly the Governor) and probably Behr to draft legislation and an appropriate fiscal note.

Similarly, the Governor would like to create a citizen blue ribbon task force to assess events and bring closure to the process. We should also discuss enabling authority, funding, staffing and goals for such a commission.

Call me when you have a chance so we can decide on a process. Thanks Talis

Subject: Penney Earmark

Governor,

Several weeks ago, we received a letter from some Kenai area fishermen requesting that Department of Law review ADF&G's handling of federal funds that were earmarked for Bob Penney and went to Kenai River Sportfishing Association. We requested that Department of Law conduct such a review and received the results today. The review finds that ADF&G complied with all applicable state procedures and regulations in their handling of the funds. Law's review was limited to how the funds were handled after they reached the state agency and did not address the earmark itself or the congressional process.

I provided Kris with a copy of the memo from law. She will pass it on to you either this evening or at the ACES town hall meeting tomorrow.

I will draft a response to the parties that requested the investigation letting them know the results. Because law found no deficiencies in ADF&G's handling of the funds, we have no basis for taking the actions requested in the letter, such as barring Kenai River Sportfishing Association from participating in Board of Fish meetings or cancelling outstanding contracts for the remainder of the funds.

If I can provide any more information, please let me know.

Thanks,

Cora

CACFA -

After 7 days we've been unable to reach [Privileged or P] of [Privileged] for the final spot on CACFA. He must be out of town. Todd provided the name of Native Alaskan Frank Woods this morning whom I spoke to. His background: He's on DNR's Snow Track Committee, the Federal Subsistence Advisory Council, and the Native American Fish & Wildlife Society. He had some DUI issues over 23yrs ago but no issues recently. If he sounds good to you, our final panel would be:

Susan Smith - Chitina - of "Residents of the Wrangell"

Ken Kreitzer - Juneau - all-around outdoorsman

Mark Fish – Anchorage – hunter's/outdoor right's advocate

Charlie Lean – Nome – local expert on federal land issues

Alex Tarnai – Tanana – Guide, Trapper, Subsistence User

Frank Woods – Dillingham – BBNA, Fed Subsistence Reg. Advisory, Native Am. F&W Society, DNR Snow Track Committee

Pacific Salmon Commission Northern Panel –

Provides technical & regulatory advise for the Pacific Salmon Commission.

Unanimous consensus through Cora, Denby & Nizich is that this covers meaty and historical issues in our negotiations with Canada on Salmon. Privileged or Personal Material Redacted

Governor,

I am sorry this event was not on my radar. However, I did talk with Louise Lazur and she stated that only 1 seat would be saved for you, they realize there is a potential you may not make it since you will be in travel status, and they would only like very brief remarks welcoming Rabbi Michael Oblath to the State of Alaska.

What I found out about the Rabbi:

The Rabbi was interviewed and hired and has been in Alaska since August and this will be his first winter here. He came to Alaska from Green Valley California

He is not married, and his interests fit well for his new Alaskan lifestyle: an avid hiker and bicyclist; he is also a musician and has an interest in astronomy.

This is all I could come up with--after all, I am an accountant, not a speech writer! Hahaha

Rabbi Oblath,

They will have (2) seats set aside for you when you arrive. I explained that you would arrive @ approx. 8:30-8:45 p.m. depending on flight. This will last until approx. 9:00 p.m. There are three speakers during this time - Mayor Begich; Rev. Regina Boisclair will be welcoming as Biblical Scholar; John Ross - Head of Native Culture Center - Welcome to Native Community.

They will ask you to give short welcome to Rabbi Michael Oblath. FYI: Rabbi is not married; New to Alaska since August; this will be first winter in Alaska; Avid bicyclist and hiker.

Governor,

We wanted to be sure you had a heads-up that DEC and HSS will be holding a joint press conference Monday morning to announce new consumption guidelines for Alaska fish. Basically, pregnant or nursing women, teenage girls, and children under twelve should limit consumption of sport-caught yelloweye rockfish, halibut, and lingcod to two meals per week. We have worked with the agencies to be sure they emphasize the overall positive message about the health benefits of Alaska's fish while providing the necessary information to the public about recommended consumption limits for certain species. We have also held meetings with fishing industry representatives to give them advance notice of the announcement.

I would still really like any opportunity to incorporate aces messaging in this trip- we will be criticized for canceling. Dont want to step on their ak day agenda (and i'd rather do theie "fun" agenda items while there!) but anyway to kill two birds, i want to do it.

Governor:

We'll be working on your schedule for Sitka this afternoon and Monday.

I need your preference on going forward with the ACES briefing in Sitka.

We planned the briefing so you would be present.

But we've received considerable feedback from the community that it's too much to add to their scheduled celebration of Alaska Day on the 18th.

When we discussed briefly in NY, you indicated you were committed to Sitka, whether or not we had the briefing that day.

Please let me know your preference.

Okay, I'll fill you in when you get here.

Crap about the luggage. Bob just called me; according to Northwest there is a 50/50 chance your luggage will arrive on the 10am flight this morning. The airline is supposed to notify us once the plane arrives.

Pls let me know where everyone is on this before i respond to mike. He has a different take on this than others. I'll see you in a bit and we can chat then. My luggage didnt make it, so i may have to try to track it down this AM and the airline had better deliver it to me - there's no time to go back to airport once northwest finds it. Bristol's made it tho!

If the plan is to give Ron until the end of the year to retire, I can talk to Emil and the other commissioners on the board (Galvin and Von Scheben) to get things back on track.

Governor,

We wanted to be sure you had a heads-up that DEC and HSS will be holding a joint press conference Monday morning to announce new consumption guidelines for Alaska fish. Basically, pregnant or nursing women, teenage girls, and children under twelve should limit consumption of sport-caught yelloweye rockfish, halibut, and lingcod to two meals per week. We have worked with the agencies to be sure they emphasize the overall positive message about the health benefits of Alaska's fish while providing the necessary information to the public about recommended consumption limits for certain species. We have also held meetings with fishing industry representatives to give them advance notice of the announcement.

Governor,

CACFA –
After 7 days we've been unable to reach Privileged c of Privileged for the final spot on CACFA. He must be out of town. Todd provided the name of Native Alaskan Frank Woods this morning whom I spoke to. His background: He's on DNR's Snow Track Committee, the Federal Subsistence Advisory Council, and the Native American Fish & Wildlife Society. He had some DUI issues over 23yrs ago but no issues recently. If he sounds good to you, our final panel would be:
Susan Smith – Chitina – of "Residents of the Wrangell"
Ken Kreitzer – Juneau – all-around outdoorsman
Mark Fish – Anchorage – hunter's/outdoor right's advocate
Charlie Lean – Nome – local expert on federal land issues
Alex Tamai – Tanana – Guide, Trapper, Subsistence User
Frank Woods – Dillingham – BBNA, Fed Subsistence Reg. Advisory, Native Am. F&W Society, DNR Snow Track Committee

Pacific Salmon Commission Northern Panel –
Provides technical & regulatory advise for the Pacific Salmon Commission.
Unanimous consensus through Cora, Denby & Nizich is that this covers meaty and historical issues in our negotiations with Canada on Salmon. Privileged or Personal Material Redacted

Subject: RE: Comm

I know I have not been in direct contact but I have been communicating through others just to help keep things going. I know Talis, Annette, Sharon etc. have emailed you at my request. I hope that has been OK.

There is a lot going on and today I am trying to keep things moving working with the Karen on the budget and Russ on the legislative proposals. The agencies did not come forward with many changes to round 2 of the budget requests. Prioritizing will be a very difficult process but we can bring focus to the almost overwhelming number of proposals by tying our bills and budget back to our overall priorities. In the last couple of days Russ has received the final legislative proposals/requests from the agencies and we will scope them out make recommendations on which would be good Governor bills and which would be good to shop to individual legislators.

Nizich is done with the job posting for communications. I will have it sent to Anchorage for your review. MacKinnon talked to Privilege yesterday and I think Leo is talking to him today. MacKinnon developed a two page job description that I will send to you but I heard that Privilege may be concerned that he will get stuck at a desk. MacKinnon thinks that Privilege will be perfect for the position and I think if he accepts, we can finalize quickly. I will call MacKinnon today to get the latest.

The business license fee bill is still active. My last conversation with the Speaker was optimistic. We can make sure it is on our list for legislative priorities and work with the committees to get it through this year. I would say the odds are better this year.

I will keep working with Talis regarding investigations. If you would like I can dial in today. Since Talis and I already talked, the AG may feel more comfortable having a one on one meeting.

Overall, the last couple of days have been rough. Privileged or Personal Material Redacted Privileged or Personal Material Redacted

If you would like me to come up Monday for the ADN editorial board meeting I can. Otherwise, I will keep working away here getting some of our priority recommendations ready for your review.

Mike- is mike n finished with Comm Dir job announcement?

Also, is Privilege on board now?

Hope all is well - i haven't heard from you except the one response to ketchikan editorial email a few days ago- i know i probably inundate you with messages, but rarely hear hear back- just hope i'm not dumping too much more on your plate with my messages/requests/questions, etc. Been trying to go through Kris and others for much of these things to lessen burden on you.

Also, though, we need to discuss soon leg priorities so we have a quality package rolled out soon.

And did you and Karen get my message about biz lic fee reduction request again this year?

Finally- AFN speech is coming up soon... Can randy (or who?) start drafting? Maybe Ana?

I meet with Talis on VECO tomorrow- he said he's been talking to you about it- I'm still counting on doing all we can from the state's side to clean up the mess... don't know if Talis has any course-change thoughts on that after your conversations, but it's important to me to make sure we're not in Fed's way with investigations but can still fufill state obligations with corruptions issues as they apply to former admin and VECO.

Thanks!
